

THE CHIEF SCOUT'S AWARD

The Chief Scout's Award was created in September 1973 by Governor General Roland Michener, who was then Chief Scout of Canada. You will receive the award when you complete the following requirements.

1. Successfully complete the Pathfinder Scout requirements.

2. Be currently qualified in First Aid Standard level or demonstrate the equivalent attitudes, skills and knowledge as judged by a “qualified instructor of First Aid”.

3. Have earned at least one Challenge Badge in each of the seven (7) Challenge Badge Categories: Athletics, Outdoors, Science & Technology, Home & Family, Personal Development, Culture & Society, Environment.

4. Hold the World Conservation Badge.

5. Investigate Scouts Canada's involvement in World Scouting. Present your findings in an interesting way to your patrol, troop, or other group. Your presentation should include information on the following:

- a) Scouts Canada's involvement with:
 - the Canadian Scout Brotherhood Fund;
 - world jamborees; and
 - the World Organization of the Scout Movement (WOSM).
- b) The purpose and location of the World Scouting Bureau; and
- c) The current World Scouting membership, and how Canada's membership compares to that of other countries.

6. Develop yourself further in each activity area by:

- a) Designing a challenging program with a Scouter which includes the requirement to excel in a component of each activity area (Citizenship, Leadership, Personal Development, and Outdoor Skills). Citizenship must include providing at least 30 hours of leadership to others.

These hours are in addition to the hours required for the Citizenship Activity Area. If at all possible, provide this service outside of Scouting

- b) Offering your plans and goals for discussion, and approval to your Court of Honour and Troop Scouter prior to beginning.
- c) Reporting to, and being evaluated by, the Court of Honour and Troop Scouter on your ongoing progress.

The Chief Scout's Award will be yours when you have completed these six (6) requirements as judged by your fellow Scouts, the Troop Scouter and Patrol Counsellors. Generally, your Troop Scouter will present you the emblem. A certificate signed by the Chief Scout of Canada will be presented to you at a public ceremony. You continue to wear the Chief Scout's Award as a Venturer. If you have not completed all of the requirements for the Chief Scout's Award before you join a Venturer Company, you have three months in which to complete them.
